Conditions of Licence

A licensee shall at all times carry the licence granted to him on his person and wear the official badge supplied by the Board whenever he is acting as a tourist guide. A licensee shall attend and successfully complete such courses of training and pass such tests of proficiency as the Board may require from time to time. A licensee shall not act as a tout for any person or receive any commission, payment, gift or consideration of any kind from any person for the purpose of bringing a tourist to patronise the business of that person or of any other person. A licensee shall be courteous to all persons in the course of his work as a tourist guide. A licensee shall keep a record of all assignments performed by him as a tourist guide and submit to the Board a half yearly return of such records on or before 15th January and July of each calendar year. A licensee shall submit such information as the Board may from time to time require concerning his activities as a tourist guide. A licensee shall permit the Board, its officers and agents to inspect his licence and his record of guiding activities at all reasonable times. A licensee shall inform the Board in writing when he ceases to be a tourist guide within 2 weeks thereof. A licensee shall not receive any remuneration from any person other than from any tourist for whom he has rendered services, or from the person who employs him to perform the functions of a tourist guide use only such language as he is authorized to use by the Board. A licensee shall not act as a guide to any tourist unless he is authorised to act as a guide in the language which the tourist understands or uses. A licensee shall not publish, distribute or cause to be published or distributed any statement (oral or written), document, pamphlet, picture or literature relating to any matter concerning tourist guides and their work without obtaining the prior written approval of the Board.
training and pass such tests of proficiency as the Board may require from time to time. A licensee shall not act as a tout for any person or receive any commission, payment, gift or consideration of any kind from any person for the purpose of bringing a tourist to patronise the business of that person or of any other person. A licensee shall be courteous to all persons in the course of his work as a tourist guide. A licensee shall keep a record of all assignments performed by him as a tourist guide and submit to the Board a half yearly return of such records on or before 15th January and July of each calendar year. A licensee shall submit such information as the Board may from time to time require concerning his activities as a tourist guide. A licensee shall permit the Board, its officers and agents to inspect his licence and his record of guiding activities at all reasonable times. A licensee shall inform the Board in writing when he ceases to be a tourist guide within 2 weeks thereof. A licensee shall not receive any remuneration from any person other than from any tourist for whom he has rendered services, or from the person who employs him to perform the functions of a tourist guide use only such language as he is authorized to use by the Board. A licensee shall not act as a guide to any tourist unless he is authorised to act as a guide in the language which the tourist understands or uses. A licensee shall not publish, distribute or cause to be published or distributed any statement (oral or written), document, pamphlet, picture or literature relating to any matter concerning tourist guides and their work	1	and wear the official badge supplied by the Board whenever he is acting commission, payment, gift or consideration of any kind from any person for the purpose of bringing a tourist to patronise the business of that person or of any other person. 4 A licensee shall be courteous to all persons in the course of his work as a tourist guide. 5 A licensee shall keep a record of all assignments performed by him as a tourist guide and submit to the Board a half yearly return of such records on or before 15th January and July of each calendar year. 6 A licensee shall submit such information as the Board may from time to time require concerning his activities as a tourist guide. 7 A licensee shall permit the Board, its officers and agents to inspect his licence and his record of guiding activities at all reasonable times. 8 A licensee shall inform the Board in writing when he ceases to be a tourist guide within 2 weeks thereof. 9 A licensee shall not receive any remuneration from any person other than from any tourist for whom he has rendered services, or from the person who employs him to perform the functions of a tourist guide. 10 A licensee shall in the course of work as a tourist guide use only such language as he is authorized to use by the Board. 11 A licensee shall not act as a guide to any tourist unless he is authorised to act as a guide in the language which the tourist understands or uses. 12 A licensee shall not publish, distribute or cause to be published or distributed any statement (oral or written), document, pamphlet, picture or literature relating to any matter concerning tourist guides and their work	2	training and pass such tests of proficiency as the Board may require from tourist guide. A licensee shall keep a record of all assignments performed by him as a tourist guide and submit to the Board a half yearly return of such records on or before 15th January and July of each calendar year. A licensee shall submit such information as the Board may from time to time require concerning his activities as a tourist guide. A licensee shall permit the Board, its officers and agents to inspect his licence and his record of guiding activities at all reasonable times. A licensee shall inform the Board in writing when he ceases to be a tourist guide within 2 weeks thereof. A licensee shall not receive any remuneration from any person other than from any tourist for whom he has rendered services, or from the person who employs him to perform the functions of a tourist guide. A licensee shall in the course of work as a tourist guide use only such language as he is authorized to use by the Board. A licensee shall not act as a guide to any tourist unless he is authorised to act as a guide in the language which the tourist understands or uses. A licensee shall not publish, distribute or cause to be published or distributed any statement (oral or written), document, pamphlet, picture or literature relating to any matter concerning tourist guides and their work	3	commission, payment, gift or consideration of any kind from any person for the purpose of bringing a tourist to patronise the business of that tourist guide and submit to the Board a half yearly return of such records on or before 15th January and July of each calendar year. A licensee shall submit such information as the Board may from time to time require concerning his activities as a tourist guide. A licensee shall permit the Board, its officers and agents to inspect his licence and his record of guiding activities at all reasonable times. A licensee shall inform the Board in writing when he ceases to be a tourist guide within 2 weeks thereof. A licensee shall not receive any remuneration from any person other than from any tourist for whom he has rendered services, or from the person who employs him to perform the functions of a tourist guide. A licensee shall in the course of work as a tourist guide use only such language as he is authorized to use by the Board. A licensee shall not act as a guide to any tourist unless he is authorised to act as a guide in the language which the tourist understands or uses. A licensee shall not publish, distribute or cause to be published or distributed any statement (oral or written), document, pamphlet, picture or literature relating to any matter concerning tourist guides and their work	4	· time require concerning his activities as a tourist guide. A licensee shall permit the Board, its officers and agents to inspect his licence and his record of guiding activities at all reasonable times. A licensee shall inform the Board in writing when he ceases to be a tourist guide within 2 weeks thereof. A licensee shall not receive any remuneration from any person other than from any tourist for whom he has rendered services, or from the person who employs him to perform the functions of a tourist guide. A licensee shall in the course of work as a tourist guide use only such language as he is authorized to use by the Board. A licensee shall not act as a guide to any tourist unless he is authorised to act as a guide in the language which the tourist understands or uses. A licensee shall not publish, distribute or cause to be published or distributed any statement (oral or written), document, pamphlet, picture or literature relating to any matter concerning tourist guides and their work	5	tourist guide and submit to the Board a half yearly return of such records licence and his record of guiding activities at all reasonable times. A licensee shall inform the Board in writing when he ceases to be a tourist guide within 2 weeks thereof. A licensee shall not receive any remuneration from any person other than from any tourist for whom he has rendered services, or from the person who employs him to perform the functions of a tourist guide. A licensee shall in the course of work as a tourist guide use only such language as he is authorized to use by the Board. A licensee shall not act as a guide to any tourist unless he is authorised to act as a guide in the language which the tourist understands or uses. A licensee shall not publish, distribute or cause to be published or distributed any statement (oral or written), document, pamphlet, picture or literature relating to any matter concerning tourist guides and their work	6 tourist guide within 2 weeks thereof. A licensee shall not receive any remuneration from any person other than from any tourist for whom he has rendered services, or from the person who employs him to perform the functions of a tourist guide. A licensee shall in the course of work as a tourist guide use only such language as he is authorized to use by the Board. A licensee shall not act as a guide to any tourist unless he is authorised to act as a guide in the language which the tourist understands or uses. A licensee shall not publish, distribute or cause to be published or distributed any statement (oral or written), document, pamphlet, picture or literature relating to any matter concerning tourist guides and their work	7	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · from any tourist for whom he has rendered services, or from the person who employs him to perform the functions of a tourist guide. 10 A licensee shall in the course of work as a tourist guide use only such language as he is authorized to use by the Board. 11 A licensee shall not act as a guide to any tourist unless he is authorised to act as a guide in the language which the tourist understands or uses. 12 A licensee shall not publish, distribute or cause to be published or distributed any statement (oral or written), document, pamphlet, picture or literature relating to any matter concerning tourist guides and their work	8 language as he is authorized to use by the Board. A licensee shall not act as a guide to any tourist unless he is authorised to act as a guide in the language which the tourist understands or uses. A licensee shall not publish, distribute or cause to be published or distributed any statement (oral or written), document, pamphlet, picture or literature relating to any matter concerning tourist guides and their work	9	from any tourist for whom he has rendered services, or from the person act as a guide in the language which the tourist understands or uses. A licensee shall not publish, distribute or cause to be published or distributed any statement (oral or written), document, pamphlet, picture or literature relating to any matter concerning tourist guides and their work	10	· ·
distributed any statement (oral or written), document, pamphlet, picture or literature relating to any matter concerning tourist guides and their work	11
	12	distributed any statement (oral or written), document, pamphlet, picture or literature relating to any matter concerning tourist guides and their work