Culinary Masterclass with Chef Malcolm

Candlenut, the world's first Michelin-starred Peranakan restaurant takes a contemporary yet authentic approach to traditional Straits-Chinese cuisine. The restaurant serves up refined Peranakan cuisine that preserves the essence and complexities of traditional food, with astute twists that lift the dishes to a new level. Helmed by chef Malcolm Lee, Candlenut is committed to continually create Peranakan dishes using the freshest seasonal produce available. Join us in this session as Malcolm chats and demonstrates how you can whip up one of his signature dishes right in the comfort of your own home.

Bake-at-Home Demonstration by Asia's Best Pastry Chef, Chef Janice Wong

Singaporean Janice Wong has learned from some of the world's best chefs, including US luminaries Thomas Keller and Grant Achatz, virtuoso Spanish chocolatier Oriol Balaguer, and prodigious French pastry chef Pierre Hermé. She has been named Asia's Best Pastry Chef for the second year running by the prestigious San Pellegrino Asia's 50 Best for 2013 & 2014. Janice Wong also won the title of Pastry Chef of the Year from the World Gourmet Summit Awards in 2011, 2013 and 2015. In this session, chat with her as she shows you how you can easily bake at your own abode, celebrity-style.

Behind the scenes tour and cocktail masterclass with Jamie Koh

The first of its kind in Singapore, Brass Lion Distillery is a full-fledged working distillery in the Lion City and home to the Singapore Dry Gin. A curiosity for gin distillation, combined with a desire for creating a uniquely Singaporean spirit, became the catalyst for the inception of Brass Lion Distillery in 2012. Let founder Jamie Koh take you through the inspiration behind the Singapore Dry Gin – a union of 22 botanicals, made with passion followed by a virtual cocktail-mixing session.

Killiney Kopitiam: From Coffeeshop to Factory

In this live stream curated by Tribe Tours, visit the Killiney Kopitiam - one of Singapore's oldest coffee shops. Its Killiney Road outlet has even been recognised in Singapore Book of Records 2008 as the 'Oldest Existing Hainanese Coffeeshop'. Catch a glimpse into Hainanese culture; the 'secrets' of Killiney's coffee, kaya and paste; and go behind-the-scenes and experience virtually how the instant coffee is truly Made-In-Singapore!

Explore the sights and sounds of Little India

Feast your senses on the wonders of Indian culture as we explore the ethnic enclave of Little India. Learn about the origins of the Indian community in Singapore, their cultural habits and various traditional occupations they were involved in. Visit a Hindu temple to understand their religious practices, as well as festivals that will leave you in awe. With all the sights and sounds of this colourful district, you can be sure there will never be a dull moment on this immersive journey of discovery curated by Monster Day Tours.

Home dining with a “Peranakan”

The word “Peranakan”, meaning “descendent”, is colloquially used to refer to descendants of the early Chinese community that settled in the Malay Archipelago around the 17th Century. In Singapore and Malaysia, the term Peranakan refers primarily to Chinese who are born in the former Straits Settlements (specifically, Singapore, Penang, and Melaka) or in the former British Malaya (now Peninsular Malaysia) and their descendants. Join this specially curated tour by SingExpress Travel DMC and delve into Peranakan culture and heritage, and experience Peranakan home hospitality, where you will get to meet a “Bibik” – the matriarch of the family.

Streets of Harmony @ Waterloo

Waterloo Street, a microcosm of Singapore's social fabric, is a street that is often overlooked by locals. How did different religious temples and churches come to be on this street? What were the ‘ingredients’ that contributed to harmony between the religions? Why is there a joss stick urn in front of a Hindu temple? How much do you know about each religion? Through this learning journey, Tribe Tours will reveal more about these uniquely Singaporean customs, cultures and norms that make our street of harmony.
