

Passion
Made
Possible

Annex A: More on the Unique Events

- Path - Dream of the Orient – 2 October – 7pm

Experience an evening at Path, where the rich cultural heritage of a Chinese teahouse blends with the contemporary flair of modern Singapore. Executive Chef Marvas Ng, a Culinary World Cup double gold medallist, presents an eight-course menu that marries East Asian flavours with French finesse. The evening begins with a traditional Chinese tea ceremony and features captivating dance performances that offer a deep dive into Singapore's cultural tapestry.

- LeVeL33 - Illuminated Bites & Brews – 5 October – 7pm

Indulge in a unique dining experience at LeVeL33, where sustainability meets culinary artistry. Over a 3-hour unlimited food and beverage service, Chef Jake Kowalewski will present a menu crafted from beer elements and brewing by-products. As night falls, LeVeL33 transforms with illuminated performances by artists in upcycled outfits, celebrating the fusion of sustainability and contemporary dining amidst the clouds.

- Yantra - The Maharaja's Brunch – 6 October – 11.30am

Step into the grandeur of India's past and celebrate the cultural ties India shares with Singapore. 'The Maharaja's Brunch' at Yantra will welcome guests with a complimentary glass of champagne, followed by a four-course fine-dining menu and a buffet-style dessert. Guests will enjoy a sophisticated experience with roving performances that are inspired by the historical synergy between these two countries.

- Harummanis - The Foods of Singapore Malays - A Legacy Dinner (Halal) – 7 October – 6pm

Immerse yourself in the rich heritage of Singaporean Malay cuisine at Harummanis. This special four-course dinner, featuring Chef Akmal Anuar and his mother Raja Paridah, highlights the intergenerational collaboration that combines traditional dishes with contemporary interpretations. This event offers a culinary journey through Malay culture, elevating its flavours to new heights.

- Firangi Superstar - Ayodhya Adventures in Singapore – 8 October – 7pm

Join us at Firangi Superstar for "Ayodhya Adventures in Singapore," where the ancient Indian epic, The Ramayana, comes to life through food and performance. Chef Raj Kumar, a Singapore-born culinary superstar, leads a night of interactive storytelling and modern Indian cuisine, blending tradition with innovation for an unforgettable cultural experience.

- Cenzo - Italian Meets Australian Meets Singaporean Dinner Party – 9 October – 7pm

Celebrate the eclectic mix of Australian, Italian, and Singaporean cultures at Cenzo, where Chef Drew Nocente will play host to a lively communal dining experience. Guests will enjoy a welcome drink, shared platters, music, and a vibrant atmosphere that feels like a big family gathering. It's a night of connection, culture, and culinary joy.

Passion
Made
Possible

- Alkaff Mansion - Revelry in the Mansion – 11 October – 7pm
Step into the 1920s at Alkaff Mansion with "Revelry in the Mansion." This event brings to life the glamour and cultural transformation of Singapore's elite circles, featuring dance performances inspired by the Charleston and Lindy Hop. Enjoy cocktails crafted in the spirit of the golden age of mixology, paired with a Singaporean menu that celebrates the rich culinary traditions of the era.
- Jiak Kim House - The Magic of Tradition & Modernity – 12 October – 7pm
Experience the Magic of Tradition and Modernity at Jiak Kim House. This evening blends Singapore's rich heritage with contemporary flair through a four-course menu and a captivating performance inspired by Chinese opera. Set within a beautifully preserved 1920s conservation warehouse, this event is a harmonious blend of the past and present.
- Neon Pigeon - Singapore After Dark – 12 October – 6pm
Dive into the shadowy allure of Singapore with "Singapore After Dark" at Neon Pigeon. This event offers an evening of world-class food bites, cocktails, and performances that push the boundaries of imagination, creating a tantalising escapade through Singapore's uncut nightscape.
- Marcy's - Cabaret Soirée – 15 October – 7pm
Step into the vibrant world of Singapore's historic cabaret scene at Marcy's Cabaret Soirée. Chef Ryan Nile Choo presents a four-course menu that blends the flavours of Southeast Asia with Latin American and Coastal Italian influences, all while guests enjoy captivating performances inspired by the city's lively cabaret traditions.
- The Halia x The Villa - A Botanical Symphony (Halal) – 25 October – 6.30pm
Immerse yourself in an evening of cultural elegance and natural beauty at The Halia, nestled within the lush Singapore Botanic Gardens. "A Botanical Symphony" will be held at The Villa by the Halia, and celebrates the significance of the gardens as a UNESCO World Heritage Site with a Halal menu and enchanting performances that beautifully captures the elegance of nature.
- ATLAS - SFF x ATLAS Chronicles - A Halloween Story – 26 October – 8pm
Join ATLAS for "SFF x ATLAS Chronicles - A Halloween Story!" This night of spooky fun features live DJ sets, performances, and world-class cocktails by Beverage Director Lidiyanah 'Yana' K. Paired with bites that celebrate Singaporean flavours, this event promises a thrilling and unforgettable experience. Costumes with an 80s horror twist are encouraged.

- 1-Flowerhill - The Phantom on the Hill – 31 October – 6.30pm

Experience mystery and elegance at "The Phantom on the Hill." Set against the historic backdrop of 1-Flowerhill, this masquerade ball features an enchanting atmosphere of candles, flowers, and chandeliers. The evening includes a four-course menu plus dessert that incorporates use of local produce, complemented by live opera performances and mystical masked performers, creating a captivating and immersive experience. More Unique Events will be announced as the festival approaches, each offering a fresh and exciting way to experience Singapore's culinary scene.