APRIL 2014

EVENTS

Eggy Day Out

Take your family to Jurong Bird Park over the Good Friday weekend and enjoy an Eggy Day Out with fascinating birds and a slew of activities. Get up close and personal with MediaCorp Artiste Bryan Wong, MediaCorp Class 95FM DJ Glenn Ong, MediaCorp Gold 90.5FM DJ The Flying Dutchman and MediaCorp Love 97.2FM DJ Leelian Chua as they lead you on a Celebrity Eggs-cursion tour of the Waterfall Aviary and Southeast Asian Birds Aviary. Children up for a challenge will be able to compete in an Egg Treasure Hunt and Egg-lympics, a series of physical challenges involving eggs, to win prizes.

Let General Manager of Jurong Bird Park, Mr Raja Segran personally walk you through the park grounds on a Memories Tour and share his insights and anecdotes of how the park has changed through time. Other experiences happening during the three-day event include a 90-minute Follow the Lens Tour, which will take beginner photography enthusiasts on a visit of the bird park through the eyes of a camera led by Jurong Bird Park's resident photographer, and Totes Fun where both adults and children need to look for photos of eggs on the Wildlife Reserves Singapore Facebook page and print the image to redeem the tote bag on site. From 18 April to 30 May, one lucky visitor will get to name a newly hatched salmon-crested cockatoo chick in a naming contest. The visitor whose suggested name is selected will win a Feather Friends family membership to come back to the bird park to visit the named chick.

Celebrity Eggs-cursion Tour, and Memories Tour are limited to 30 participants per session. Totes Fun is limited to 100 bags per day.

For more information, visit www.birdpark.com.sg/eggydayout.

About Tourism50

Tourism has been a major player in the storied transformation of Singapore over the past 50 years, making the country a compelling visitor destination and a home to be enjoyed and cherished by local residents. This journey of metamorphosis would have been much more difficult if not for the contribution and support of local enterprises and residents. Tourism50 is an initiative spearheaded by the Singapore Tourism Board (STB) to commemorate 50 years of tourism development and promotion and thank local residents for their support through three phases of events and activities – Reminisce, Rediscover and Celebrate. Locals
